Town political history notes:

1763--The town of "Shenandoah Falls at Mr Harper's Ferry" recognized by an act of the Virginia General Assembly

1827--8 January: An act by the Virginia General Assembly established the town of "Virginius."

1851--24 March: The town of "Harper's Ferry" incorporated by an act of the Virginia General Assembly, which also absorbed the town of Virginius. Act amended 13 December 1852.

1852--Town surveyed and platted by S Howell Brown; sale of Armory lots to workers. Further sales in 1853.

1863--20 June: State of West Virginia established. "Retrocession of Jefferson County ...from the seceded Commonwealth of Virginia to the new State of West Virginia would seem to have abandoned the legislative contract formerly between now disassociated parties." [Kusner, 1984]

1867--21 February: WV Legislature repealed the act of Virginia which incorporated Harper's Ferry. [Other towns also had charters and incorporations repealed?] Subsequent administration apparently by County Supervisors under Township rules.

1868--23 December: WV Legislature united Townships of Bolivar and Harper's Ferry into a new entity called "Bolivar township."

1869--Sale of Armory lots.

1872--6 April, Saturday: From the Virginia Free Press, published in Charles Town WV: "On Thursday of last week [4 April] a vote was taken by the citizens of Harper's Ferry to determine whether or not application should be made for an incorporation of the Town.
