No update.

iv. Discussion and action regarding maintenance of mains.

Storm DiCostanzo said that there are currently staffing capacity issues, so some projects have been placed on pause. There is currently $30,000 earmarked by the Town Council to review and replace mains. Additionally, $42,000 has been earmarked from WDA fund moneys for preparation work. A large invoice has just been received, but it is not ready for approval at this time. A payment of some $60,000 will need approval for Greenridge Contractors, Inc. soon.

v. Discussion and action regarding Town website and logo project.

Greg Vaughn thanked Storm DiCostanzo, Jesse Melton, and Virilissa Breeden for their work on this project. Jesse said that he will meet with the commissions and committees to address how they want to use the website.

vi. Discussion regarding the Alpha Engineering proposals for Henry Clay Street and capital improvement financing.

This item is still being worked on.

c. Water Commission.

i. General report from the Public Works Administrator.

Stephen Paradis said the bills for the past two months have been estimated. The rate of loss “seems to be headed in the right direction”. About 5.5 million gallons of potable water were produced each of the last two months. There is currently an effort to keep work costs down, but the Water Works is keeping an eye on water loss. Some hydrant repairs are being performed. About 60 water pits have been cleaned out and some two dozen fixed. Repairs will have to be made to the Cummins generator. David Simmons noted that in the interim until the new meters are in the ground, the Public Service District will be putting in replacement meters.
