RE: FOIA Request – Harpers Ferry Assigned #2020-0016

Dear Ms. Yost:

In response to your FOIA request, Harpers Ferry #2020-0016, please find the following:

1. The minutes from the town meeting at which digital advertising on our Town website was approved.

RESPONSE: No such document exists.

2. The name(s) of the town webmaster and the name(s) of those with administrator privileges to our Town website, harpersferrywv.us, and associated Go Daddy registry.

RESPONSE: The webmaster is Kevin Carden, Town Recorder. No other person has administrator privileges to the Town website. Advantage Technology has special administrator privileges for email administration associated with the harpersferrywv.us registry only.

3. The name of the Google Adsense account holder/administrator associated with the digital advertising on our Town website.

Historic District
Where the Shenandoah Meets the Potomac

RESPONSE: The advertising that inadvertently appeared on the Town website was associated with the calendar application that was previously in use on the website's home page. That calendar application has since been replaced by a different provider which does not post advertisements.

4. An accounting of money earned through the digital ads.

RESPONSE: No money was earned; therefore, no accounting document exists.

Sincerely,

Kevin Carden, Recorder

cc: Harpers Ferry Mayor, Town Council, K. Sayre, Esq.

Excellent! Thanks so much, Kevin, for determining why inadvertent advertising appeared on our Town website, and for taking action to correct the error.

Sincerely,
Midge Flinn Yost
